Situated in Southern Oregon's gorgeous Rogue Valley, the Flying L Ranch is the perfect place to saddle up for your one-of-a-kind equestrian vacation. The Flying L is a working horse ranch, with a rustic turn-of-the-century Farmhouse, and cabin accommodations.

Oregon Equestrian Vacations has been providing one-of-a-kind horse riding trips in the Pacific Northwest for years. Whether it's a Cabin-to-Cabin Mountain ride, a five-day horseback expedition along the Pacific Crest Trail, an Ocean Breezes/Redwood Ride, a Weekend Getaway that includes a visit to a local spa or winery, or a riding adventure of your own design, our team of expert riders and experienced trail guides will work with you to create the equestrian vacation of your dreams.

All Inclusive Ranch Vacations, Cowgirl Camps and Rides

We offer seven- and four-day ranch stays, as well as weekend getaways. The trips include round-trip shuttle service from the Rogue Valley Internal Airport in Medford, meals, rides, and tack. All you need to do is get here – we'll take care of the rest!
